P R E F A C E.

THIS, the fourth completed volume of the INDEX LIBRARY, but the first issued since the formation of the British Record Society, is a calendar and index to the Bills of Privy Signet, commonly called SIGNET BILLS, for the period of 1584 to 1624, with the exception of the hiatus 1596-1603, which is, however, partly filled up by writs of Privy Seal. A Signet Bill is one of the steps which occur in passing Letters Patent under the Great Seal of England; and this volume will consequently afford a clue to the Patent Rolls for that period. Indeed, in some instances it gives fuller information, since occasionally the application for letters patent went no further than the preliminary stages, and therefore does not appear upon the Patent Rolls. Many Signet Bills are marked "stayed" in the Docquet Books, and others relate to matters which do not require the issue of Letters Patent.

The steps which occur in passing Letters Patent under the Great Seal are usually the following:—

1. Petition to the Crown, upon which is grounded the
2. Reference to the Law Officers, i.e., the Attorney-General and the Solicitor-General, upon which follows the
3. Report of the Law Officer, and, if required, of the Privy Council.
4. Warrant under the Queen's sign manual, which is the authority for the
5. Queen's Bill, which is the authority for the
6. Bill of Privy Signet, which is the authority for the
7. Writ of Privy Seal, which, having the receipt of the Lord Chancellor, is the authority for the
8. Letters Patent under the Great Seal.

The Bills of Privy Signet, with which we are now concerned, are preserved in the Public Record Office, and on the shelves of the Round Search Room will be found the corresponding Docquet Books and the indexes thereto, with some chasms, from the year 1584. These Docquet Books contain the memorandum at the foot of the Queen's Bill, and may be described as forming a précis of the Signet Bills and the ensuing Letters Patent. They number about fifty volumes.

The Docquet Books are coeval with the Signet Bills, but the indexes thereto, to which we have just referred, are of a much later date, some being evidently compiled in the present century. They are based upon the catchwords found in the margins of the Docquet Books. The catchwords, however, are not all contemporary with the docquets, and many indeed were evidently inserted by the compilers of the indexes. As the docquets are entered in a strictly chronological order, the Signet Bills would be sealed records but for the existence of the indexes, which are arranged alphabetically, and are further divided into years.

These indexes, unfortunately, have been done very badly, and the only thing which can be said in their favour is, that a bad index is, perhaps, better than none at all. They were evidently compiled by persons unable to read the handwriting of the Stuart period, and unacquainted with even the elements of indexing. As this volume, with the exception of the period—March 1600-1601, to April 1603—is wholly based upon these indexes, the labour of passing it through the press and checking errors and omissions, not infrequently a score or more in a page, has proved exceptionally heavy. The index, as it now is presented to the reader, it is perhaps needless to say, is consequently a great improvement upon the manuscript volumes in the Public Search Room. But it is too much to hope that all errors have been detected, although in every doubtful case the Docquet Books themselves have been consulted, with the result that probably not far short of three thousand blunders have been corrected. So unsatisfactory are these manuscript indexes, that the sooner they are pulped and new ones prepared the better it will be for those who have occasion to refer to the records.

That the compilation of such indexes is possible is an additional proof of what may be taken to be a maxim, that record makers should not be record keepers. Those engaged in current work are too much engaged in daily routine to deal properly with records which may have become obsolete. Indexes which are adequate for the short and shifting period with which current business is concerned, become totally insufficient for searches extending over a considerable length of time.

This principle of a severance of the two functions was recognised, at the commencement of the present reign, both by the establishment of the Public Record Office and the Registrar-General's Office at Somerset House; and it is a matter for surprise that it has not been still further extended to the case of provincial records, which are still in a state of chaos, similar to the condition of the national records before the passing of the Public Records Act of 1838.

Some account of the errors met with may be of use to the reader by putting him upon his guard should he require to consult any of the indexes which remain unprinted, and at the same time will afford, it may be, a little passing amusement.

Blunders which arise from mistaking "mi" for "nu," "c" for "t," and the like, are common enough. Thus, Fortescue appears as Fortestne, Awbery as Awberge, Darcy as Darry, Hackluit as Hacklint, East Retford as Eascretford, Luneburg as Limeburgh. The letters Z and H, Z and J, K and R, K and L, H and L, N and W, U and N, C and G, C and D, F and J, F and K, S and D, S and E, S and G, S and L, S and T, O and D, are frequently mistaken one for the other, and this inability to read the initial has produced many curious readings.

A few examples taken at random will illustrate the resulting blunders :—

Yaxley	appears as	Waseley	Lyngen	appears as	Hyngen
Jousaye	"	Fousaye	Ley	"	Key
Zulcher	"	Julcher	Langford	"	Fangford
Zouch	"	Houch	Mynterne	"	Wyntorne
Nycholson	"	Urycholson	Sussex	"	Essex
Glover	"	Olever	Sandys	"	Tandys
Grevil	"	Crevil	Sha	"	Tha
Grymston	"	Crymston	Shaftsbury	"	Chaftsbury
Guthree	"	Outhree	Dyngwell	"	Oyngwell
Needham	"	Weedham	Danvers	"	Canvers
Nightingale	"	Wightingale	Davenport	"	Savenport
Smithe	"	Emithe	Damport	"	Jamport
Evesham	"	Ovesham	Berd	"	Verd
Cutteris	"	Sutteris	St. Davids	"	St. Savile
Castillian	"	Oastillian	Kighly	"	Righley
Chaworth	"	Gaworth	Keeling	"	Reeling and Heeling
Norton	"	North	Heyborne	"	Leyborne
Le Hunt	"	Se Hunt	Udward	"	Heward
Emorson	"	Cunonson	Ive	"	Fue
Lanyer	"	Hanyer	Ferabosco	"	Kerabosco
Lazonby	"	Hazonby

Such mistakes as these of course nullify the whole aim of an index, for no one would dream of searching for the names in the first column under the initials in the second

Inability to read ordinary contractions has produced some curious results. Thus, instead of—

Whynneyard	we find	Whynnerd
Wyneard	„	Wyderd
Wymarke	„	Wymke
Southampton	„	Southton
Blenerhaisot	„	{ Bleuhaisot
		{ Blewhasset
Bulmer	„	Bulin
Palmer	„	Palm
Gorges	„	Gorgh
Egerton	„	Egditon
Cowper	„	Cowp
De Verton, protection	„	Deverton and Teccon
Kennedy, protection	„	Kennedy and Teccon

Misreadings of various letters produce such errors as in this list :—

Berry the recusant appears as	Berry the Perusant
Inchiquin	„ Iushiquin
Sinclair	„ Sanchur
Aiscough	„ Aiswagh
Terconel	„ Terrenel
Thibaut	„ Thibank
St. John, Lord	„ Lord, Sir John
St. John, Oliver	„ Sir Johns, Oliver
Marwood	„ Mornwood
Houghton	„ Hanyston

Frysar	„ Fryfær and Fryster
Ap David	„ Ax David
Maxwell	„ Mapwell
Lopez	„ Lopell
Wyn ap Cadwallader	„ Wynlux
Dymock	„ Dynox
West	„ Woft

Another class of blunders has arisen from an absence of a knowledge of the elements of indexing. Thus :—

Canterbury, archbishop of, may be sought for under	{ Canterbury, Lord Archbishop, Archbishop, or Bishop
Bristol, bishop of	„ Royal Assent
Kilkenny, city of	„ City
Wards and Liveries, court of	„ Court
Ireland, lord deputy of	„ Deputy

Gloucester, dean, etc., of,	may be sought for under	Dean
London, citizens of	"	Citizens
Pembroke, countess	"	Countess
Pembroke Hall, master of	"	Master
Brasenose College	"	Oxford Scholars
Salisbury, hospital of St. Nicholas	"	St. Nicholas' Hos- pital
Bodmin, hospital	"	Governor of Eliza- beth Hospital
Bury St. Edmunds	"	St. Edmunds

Carelessness and ignorance combined are responsible for the following extraordinary blunders, amongst others :—

Newcastle-on-Tyne	is entered as	Nero, town
De Beauchesne	"	de Beau
Buckingham, marquis of	"	Margies, lord
Fowles, Alphonsus	"	Alphoneus
St. Paul's, London, bishop of	"	Bishop of St. Palmes
St. Paul's Church, London	"	St. Paul's Square
Chapel, gentlemen of the	"	Chapel, gent.
Matthew, archbishop of Canterbury	"	Archibold, Matthew
Cursitors in Chancery	"	Clerk, Christopher
Stuart, Lady Arabella	"	Arabella, lady
Amerie, Margerie	"	Margerie
Greensmith	"	Smith, Green
Albertus, a Grecian, licence	"	Albertas, a gracious licence
Hawks, letters as to the king's	"	Licence for hawkers
Spanish ambassador	"	Spanish, Ambrose

Then there are omissions. The first surname in an entry is usually only given, and aliases are generally missed out. The official index, therefore, does not record the name of William Shakespeare, or the curious alternative name of Wood alias Swaggerer ; while Aldermarie alias Cæsar appears merely as Aldermarie.

The earliest indexes note the Christian names in every instance, but after 1606 the compiler thought it necessary to do so usually in the case only of knights and other titled persons.

A serious gap, both in the Docquet Books and the indexes to them, occurs for the period 1596-1603. Fortunately, the deficiency is in part supplied by the Docquet Books of the Privy Seals, the succeeding stage of the Letters Patent. Unfortunately, these are also incomplete, so that there is still a hiatus for the period 1596-1600. The Privy Seal Docquet Books are unindexed, and this compelled the Editor to prepare an entirely new calendar for the period 1600-1603. In this every name entered in the Docquet Book has been extracted, as will be seen on referring to pages 43-55 of the present volume.

It would not be possible within the limits of this preface to give any adequate idea of the vast variety of subjects with which Signet Bills deal. They are of peculiar value to the historian and biographer, for this volume gives references to upwards of 21,000 documents which relate to all classes of society, and it may be safely asserted that every person of any prominence during the period 1584-1624, with scarcely any exception, will be found referred to in these pages. It may be worth while to bear in mind that the Docquet Books, which are accessible to the student without even the formality of preparing a ticket, will usually supply him with the gist of the information contained in the Signet Bills themselves. In illustration of this may be instanced the following entry, relating to the famous Italian jurist who settled at Oxford in the sixteenth century:—

“A dispensation for Alberico Gentili, reader of the Civil law lecture in Oxford, to be absent from that his charge and personall residence within that universitie, in respect that he is appointed by her Mat<sup>ie</sup> to attend upon Sir Horatio Palavicino, whom her Mat<sup>ie</sup> sendeth into Germany for her speciall affaires. And in the meantyme that he shall enioye all his lyvinge, Provided that he doe supply his charge of the said lecture during his absence by some sufficient person. Dated Grenewich, the xxth of February 1589.”

That the reader may see how very varied are the subjects to which the Signet Bills relate, a few extracts have been taken at random from the Docquet Books, and are here printed verbatim, as they appear in the original.

The local historian will find in this volume much of value to his inquiries in the way of grants of fairs and markets and the incorporation of boroughs, as well as of trade companies both in London and the country. Matters of topographical interest will be readily distinguished, as in the index such references are printed in italic characters.

“July 1591. A graunte of a weekely market and two yeerly faires to her mat<sup>es</sup> tenantes of Bovitracy in the County of Devon. P<sup>c</sup>ured by Mr. Herbert.
iii/z.”

“September 1614. A graunt of Incorporation to the Founders of London into one body by the name of Master Wardens and comnaltie of the Misterie of Founders of the Cittie of London, w<sup>ch</sup> his mat<sup>ie</sup> is moved to doe out of his Royall care to provide for the reformation of abuses daily done to his subjectes through deceiptfull and false brasse weightes, wth libertie to the said corporacon to search within London and three miles compasse about for such deceiptful weightes, and with such other clauses as in like grauntes are usuall. Subscribed by Mr. Solicitor gen<sup>all</sup>. Procured by Sir Roger Wilbraham. . . . . iij*l*."

The numerous entries in this index of "Exchequer, warrant", relate, as may be imagined, to matters affecting the public revenue. Two such examples are given below.

"Primo die Martij [1585]. A warrant unto the Exchequer to pay unto sondrie p<sup>sons</sup> sondrie som<sup>es</sup> of money due unto them for service in Ireland, that is to say, to John Powell, late victualler there, Cxxvj*l*. xixs. vi*l*. ob.; to Walter Segrave, m<sup>chant</sup>, of Dublin, for money borrowed of him, CCC*l*.; to Thomas Lynneall of Chester, CCCC*l*. for victuall, and also to him for wares, 457*l*. xis. ob. q'; to the widow of Hercules Rainsford the som<sup>e</sup> of CCxlv*l*. xis. 1*l*. ob., receaving their severall billes. All w<sup>ch</sup> severall som<sup>es</sup> to be chardged in thaccompt of the Thre'r at warres now there as money delivered to him for her Ma<sup>tes</sup> service. vis. viij*l*."

"A warrant to the Exchequer to discharge Robt. le Mason als. la Fontaine, minister of the French church in London, of all such sommes of money as he is or shall be assessed to pay unto his Ma<sup>ty</sup> for the payment of three subsidies graunted his Ma<sup>ty</sup> this last P<sup>liament</sup>. Dated at Westm. the xxvij of August [1605]. . . . . nil."

The next entry given illustrates a point of constitutional law, and shows that the attendance of peers at Parliament was once regarded as a duty only to be avoided by special leave from the Crown. The practice of sending proxies was not discontinued until 1868.

"March 1613-14. A l<sup>re</sup> to the Earl of Kent whereby his mat<sup>ie</sup> dispenseth with him for his appearance this next Parliament, he sending of his proxie. P<sup>cur</sup>. ut supra, Dat. 22. . . . . 6s. 8*l*."

The control exercised by the Crown over the printing press is illustrated by the extract here given :—

"March 1594. A priviledge graunted unto Charles Yetswerte, one of the Clarks of her Ma<sup>tes</sup> Signet, for xxx yeares next com'inge to ymprint all mann' of bookes that concerne y<sup>e</sup> comon lawe of this Realme, upon sorerender of a former graunte thereof made unto his father, Nicasius Yetzwerte, for y<sup>e</sup> like tearme. Amics Curie."

Numerous particulars about the King and the royal family, perhaps not elsewhere to be gleaned, can be found in the Docquet Books. The extracts which follow seem to be of interest. One shows the expense of decorating the tomb of Mary Stuart : another the remuneration of a leading portrait painter in James the First's time. Nor is the provision made for preserving the "hares and pheasants, etc.", at Richmond without interest, and attention may be drawn to the use made of the New River, the "pond" at Islington, for affording the King "pleasure and disporte".

"August 1606. A warrant to the Excheqr to pay to John de Crites, his mates Ser'i<sup>nt</sup> Paynter, the summe of liii*l*. vis. viij*d*. in full satisfaccon to him for the making of three pictures to be sent to the Archduke of Austria, the one representing his ma<sup>ty</sup>, the other two the Queene and the Prince in full length and proporcon, according to a note subscribed by the Lo. Chamb'len. Procured ut supra. Dated at Westm. the xxth of August. . . . . nil."

"May 1616. A warrant to the Exchequer to pay to James Manucy, painter, the somme of £265 for painting and gilding of a monument erected in Westm. Abbey in memory of lady Mary late Queene of Scotland, his Majesty's mother. Procured by Mr. Secretary Lake."

"March 1614. A warr' under the Signet authorizing Hugh Middleton of London, goldsmyth, to erect such sheds about a pond w<sup>ch</sup> he hath made neere Islington as he shall think convenient for the breeding and cherishing of wild-duckes and other waterfowle for his mates pleasure and disporte, and likewise to erect a howse for such p'sons as shall have the charge of the said game. Procur. ut supra. Dat. ut supra. . . . . rem."

"March 1613-14. The office of keeping his mates game of Hare, pheasant, &c., neer Richmond, wth the fee of 18*d*. per diem, graunted to Charles Burton gent., during his life upon surrender of Michael Kirklam. Subsc. by the Erle of Nottingham, procur. by Mr. Secretary Winwood. . . . . 6*s*. 8*d*."

There are, of course, many entries relating to inventions, the following instances of which will suffice:—

"1591. A privilege graunted to Richard Mathewes, yeoman of her maties Pantrie, his Executors, Deputies and assignes to make Trane oyle of the livers of Fyshes during the space of tenne years, paying to her Matie an annual rent of x*s*. P'cured by Mr. Aubrey. . . . . vis. viij*d*."

"March 1605. A licence graunted to Sir Bevis Bulm', Knight, in consideration of his greate labor and charges in devising a newe engyne by waterworkes for cutting of Iron into small roddes, for the sale and onely using of the said Engine for the terme of xij yeares. Subscribed by Mr. Attorney generall. Procured ut sup. . . . . vis. viij*d*."

There are many examples of the denization of foreigners, amongst whom of course, at this period, must be included Scotchmen. Two instances are given below, one being that of a Scotch peer in 1614. Calvin's case, which was a test case, brought at the instance of King James I, occurred some six years before, but that affected only the post nati, i.e., those born after the date of the King's accession, and the ante nati, of whom Lord Bulmerinoth was one, still remained aliens, despite the King's anxiety to effect a complete union of the two countries.

"August 1595. A free denizenship for Catherine Burnell, daughter of John Burnell, borne in Lubeck. P'cured by Mr. Herbert. . . . . vis. viij*d*."

"November 1614. A denization for John Elphingston, Lord of Bulmerinoth, born in Scotland. Subscr. by Windebank. Procur. by Mr. Secretary.

*vis. viij*d*."*

Presentations to livings, matters relating to the appointments of bishops, grants of land, leases for lives, which latter often give useful bits of pedigree, frequently occur amongst the Signet Bills. Two of these follow here :—

“ April 1591. A like [presentation] to the p'sonage of Lutterworth in the diocese of Lincoln, voyd by the resignation of Thomas Banckes, last Incu'bent, for Edward Clement, Mr. of Art. P'cured by Mr. Aubrey. . . vis. viij*l*.”

“ November 1595. A lease upon surrender graunted by y<sup>e</sup> commission's unto John Browninge, Richard Browninge his sonne, and Mary Browninge his daughter for the tearme of their iij lives successively, of the parsonage of Cowley wth the appt'nces in the countie of Glocester. Rent p' annum, xv*l*. Fine Cs. Pd. by Tallie. . . . . xxs.”

Grants of offices, nominations to almshouses and the like, in the Crown's gift, appear amongst the Signet Bills.

“ December 1614. The office of Chirurgeon for his Mat<sup>es</sup> p'son wth the fee of 40*l*. p' ann' graunted to Duncan Primrose during his life. Procured ut supra. . . . . 6s. 8*d*.”

“ Aprill 1591. The rome of An Almesman in her maties Almshouse of Ewe Elme graunted to Richard Prior during his naturall life in consideracon of his service in the warres. Dated at Greenwich the xvith day of Aprill in the xxxiiijth yeare of her Maties reigne. P'cured by Mr. Aubrey. Nil quia paup.”

Two entries which appear consecutively will be of special interest in showing how “heresy” was dealt with in the time of James I.

“ March 1611-12. A warrt to the Lo. Chauncello<sup>r</sup> of England for the awarding of a writt under the great Seale of England to the Sherifffes of London for the burning of Bartholomew Legatt, convicted of divers horrible heresys before the B<sup>p</sup> of London and by his sentence left unto the secular power. Subscr. by Mr. Attorney g'nall. Procured ut supra. . . . . Pro R.”

“ A like for the awarding of a writt to the Sheriff of Lichfeild for the burning of Edward Wightman, convicted of divers horrible heresies before the B<sup>p</sup> of Coven. and Litch. and by his sentence left unto the secular power. Subscr. and procur. ut supra. . . . . Pro R.”

The bishops who were responsible for these convictions which led to the two “heretics” being sent to the stake, were John King, consecrated Bishop of London, 8 September 1611, and Richard Neyle, translated from Rochester to the see of Lichfield, 12 October 1610.

Pardons are of frequent occurrence, and, as may be imagined, the character of the offences in respect to which the royal clemency is exercised is very varying. In the following instances we find one is political, and two illustrate the harsh treatment of “seminary priests", whom it was an offence even to relieve. Service in the navy of a foreign power requires a pardon, and one poor man, we find, was imprisoned for "conjuring". More vulgar offences were also occasionally pardoned, the reason sometimes, as in the case of Abraham Busfield, being specified.

"A pardon graunted to George Norton of Cleasbie in the Countie of York, gent., condemned for his offences in the rebellion in the north in the xith yeare of her Maties raigne. Subscribed by Mr. Attorney generall. . . vis. viijd."

"March 1594. A pardon graunted unto Thomas ap Owen of Kidwelly in ye countie of Carm'then, gent., and Sage his wife, and unto Hugh lloide of llandilo vawre in ye same countie, gent., for receavinge into theire howses and releiving two seminary Preistes. . . vis. viijd."

"April 1606. A Pardon for Thomas Lake for serving the States at sea, contrary to his Mat'es proclamacon. Procured by Sr Julius Cesare. vis. viijd."

"A letter to my L. Chiefe Justice of England to sett at libertie one Thomas Elkes, prisoner in the Kinges bench, condemned for coniuring, upon sufficient sureties. Dated at Greenwich the xxvjth day of Februarie 1585. Procured by my ladie Stafford. . . vis. viijd."

"A pardon for Burghlarie graunted unto Thomas Lock of Wherwell in the Countie of South, butcher. Subscribed by Justice Manwood, Thomas Colbie, John Fysher, and other Justices of peace of the said Countie. P'cured by Docto<sup>r</sup> Dale. . . nil q<sup>a</sup> paup."

"March 1613-14. A p'don for Abraham Busfield for stealing a horse of the price of 3*l.*, it being his first offence and the evidence verie doubtfull, and in regard he hath a wife and manie poore children. Subscr. by Baron Bromley. Procur. ut supra."

"November 1614. A pardon for Robert Gray, heretofore a seminarye priest, for all offences, for passing beyond Sea and reconciling himself to the church of Rome, and thereupon retorning into this realme, who hath now conformed himself to the religion here established, hath taken the oathes of allegiance and supremacy, and goeth to divine service. Subscr. by Mr. Attorney and the L. Archbishop of Canterbury. Procur. by Sir Tho. Lake. . . nil."

Letters to foreign potentates are also recorded and the language in which they were written specified.

"April 1591. A Pre in french to the Prince Dombes, according to a mynute remayning wth the L. T'rer. Dated at Greenwich the xvijth of April, Anno suprad'co. . . P<sup>a</sup> Regina."

The next entry illustrates how upon occasion the Lord Chancellor was called upon to act as mediator between disputants. Nowadays, of course, a question affecting a lease of the Park of Odiham would be adjudicated upon, but King James I, the last king who claimed the right to preside in the courts of law in person, in this instance evidently reserved the final decision as a matter for his own judgment. The position of the Master of the Rolls may be noted. He seems to have been an assessor to the Lord Chancellor.

" March 1613-14. A Pre to the Lo. Chancello<sup>r</sup> requiring him y<sup>t</sup> he would (wth the assistance of the M<sup>r</sup> of the Rolles) call before him the Earle of Marr and Sr Edward Moore, K<sup>t</sup>, and to do his endeavor to make a finall end of the differince betweene them concerning the interest of a lease of the manno<sup>r</sup> and Parke of Odium in the County of Southt., w<sup>ch</sup> if he cannot doe, that then he certefy to his Mat<sup>ie</sup> the true state of the cause and by whose default he could not compound and end it. Dat. and procured ut supra. . . . 6s. 8d."

Gifts by the Crown of what were public revenues frequently occur. Sometimes, as that to the famous geographer John Norden, they were really nothing more than a method of farming out the revenue. The gift to John Cleland incidentally shows the jurisdiction exercised by the Courts Christian in causes of morality.

" March 1613-14. A gift unto James Cleland, gent., of three p<sup>tes</sup> of two seu<sup>l</sup>all Fynes, one of 100*l*. the other of 20 m<sup>ks</sup>, imposed upon one John Beasford (by his mat<sup>es</sup> com<sup>rs</sup> for causes ecclesiasticall) for his Adultery and contempt against the said Courts. Procur. by Sir Tho. Lake. Subscr. by Mr. Serle his Mat<sup>es</sup> Procurato<sup>r</sup> for causes ecclesiastical. . . . 6s. 8d."

Licences to travel abroad are frequently to be met with, and they usually specify how large a retinue and how much money the tourist might take with him. It is a little difficult now to realize that less than three hundred years ago it was needful to obtain a special passport to cross the Tweed.

" November 1614. A licence for Richard Colton, Esq., to travell to the Spawe for the recovery of his health, lymitting him not to exceed the bounds of Fraunce and Germany, wth 3 servants, 2 horses and 50 l. in money. Procur. by Mr. Secretary. . . . vis. viij*d*."

" A passport for James Dowglas, soon to the late Erle of Morton, to goe into Scotland wth one horse or guelding of his owne, his servants, etc. Dated at Greenwich the xxth of Februarie [1585]."

" April 1615. A licence to travell for Walter Rawleigh, Esq., for three years, wth one servaunt, one horse or guelding, and fifty pounds in money. Dated and procured ut supra. . . . 6s. 8d."

This last entry doubtless relates to the eldest son of Sir Walter Raleigh, about whom in the short period of four years we find several entries, the substance of which is given below. They will serve to show how individual biography may derive illustration from the Signet Bills.

On 10th June 1585 he received a commission empowering him to seize for her Majesty's service any ships, mariners, and soldiers, and all provisions and munitions which he should find in any port, creek, or haven in Devon and Cornwall. Two years later, 8th June 1587, a warrant was issued directing the Exchequer to pay him £2,000, to be expended by him according to such directions as he should receive. Later on, in November of the same year, by a similar warrant, £100 was to be paid to Sir Walter Raleigh, or Cæsar Raleigh, for the purpose of fortifying Portland Castle. There are two more entries respecting him in the following year. He obtained a licence for thirty-one years, in May 1588, to grant licences for the sale of wines, and in September he received a licence to transport 8,000 cloths.

To facilitate reference, a lexicographical index has been added, in which contractions for Christian names have been made use of in order to save space. In this, moreover, the minor variations which are so common at this period in the spelling of surnames have been usually disregarded, and the Editor, as a rule, has followed the modern or best known form, though in cases of possible doubt cross-references are also given. In the preparation of this work, which may be regarded as forming a ready key to the Patent Rolls, the late Mr. Walford Selby took much interest, and the Editor, in the earlier part of the volume, is indebted to him for many valuable hints. Indeed, it was solely due to his suggestion that "Signet Bills" were selected as one of the first issues of the INDEX LIBRARY. Thanks are also due to the officers in charge of the "Round Room", who have often rendered kind help in the elucidation of doubtful readings in the Docquet Books.

[NOTE.—From this date until the month of May 1603 there is, unfortunately, a gap in the Series of Signet Indexes preserved in the Public Record Office, which cannot be filled by means of the Docquet Books from which these Indexes were originally compiled, for none of them during the period Nov. 1596 to May 1603, are now forthcoming. It is evident that they were lost some time before the compilation of the Indexes which we are now printing. The hiatus is, in part, supplied by the Docquet Books of the Privy Seal Office. But the first volume of this series is missing, and the second volume does not begin until March 1600-1601, and consequently a gap still remains for the four years 1597-1600. The following portion of this Index for the year 1600-2, I have compiled anew from vol. ii of the Privy Seal Series of Docquet Books, which give similar information to the Docquet Books of the Signet Office. It is arranged in chronological order, that method of arrangement being more convenient for purpose of reference to the Docquet Books, and will also be found to be much fuller than the Signet Index, for every name has been extracted, while the compiler of the official Signet Index, when more than one person is mentioned in an entry, is content to add an "etc." to the name which he indexes. The subject-note of each entry will also be found to indicate its character more precisely. The number of "recusants" whose names are given will specially interest many persons.—W. P. W. P.]

N.B.—With the month of November 1607 the second volume of the manuscript index commences. It is less complete than the first, for the Christian names are omitted except in the case of the more important persons mentioned. There are other faults in the index, such as placing bishops under the letter B instead of the initial of the see. To have remedied all these defects would have necessitated the preparation of a new calendar. The error of entering bishops under B, or the City of Kilkenny under C, is of small importance, as it will be practically remedied by the general index.

NOTE.—In this Index it should be remembered that, as a rule, the minor variations in the spelling of surnames are disregarded for obvious reasons of convenience. No attempt has been made to distinguish such spellings as Allen and Allin, Barnes and Barns, Barratt, Barrett, or Baret, etc., which are entered under the most usual modern form. Words with “y” are generally indexed as if spelt with “i.” Thus Byggs and Smythe are entered under Biggs and Smith. In certain cases, such as Berkeley and Barkley, cross-references are added. When a name occurs more than once on a page usually one reference only is given.

Names of places and offices are printed in italics.
